

FEMA's Great Lakes Coastal Flood Study, 2012-2016 (?)

- Early 2012 -- Door County zoning administrators learn FEMA is conducting new Great Lakes-wide floodplain study (see handouts from FEMA, which include project overview)
- June 26, 2012 -- RPC sends letter to FEMA regarding concerns about study parameters
- September 17, 2012 -- FEMA letter responding to RPC
- September 27, 2012 -- Planning Department submits comments on transect study points
- October 19, 2012 -- Planning Department submits comments on study transition area points
- October 23, 2012 -- County Board adopts resolution regarding study, forwarded in November to state and federal elected officials
- November 27, 2012 -- County staff receive FEMA's Great Lakes Coastal Flood Study Lake Michigan Draft Discovery Report (see handout regarding transect numbers)

Website link to report & appendices: <http://www.greatlakescoast.org/DiscoveryReports/>

Sections pertinent to Door County:

- Report
- Appendix A (Stakeholder List)
- Appendix F (Kewaunee, Door, and Brown County Discovery Report), including Attachments C, D, E, F, and G
- Appendix R (Final Discovery Maps; Door County, p. 40)
- Appendix S (Stakeholder Comments; Door County, pp. 9-34)
- January 4, 2013 -- County staff submit input on Draft Discovery report; acknowledgement of receipt of input received that same day
- Next steps...

Door County Planning Department
January 29, 2013